

Snook is a saltwater fish which lives in warm water in central and south Florida. They are found throughout the Indian River. Snook like shorelines lined with mangrove trees. They mostly eat small mullet and shrimp. Snook are spectacular, hard fighting sportfish. The world record, caught in Costa Rica, weighed over 53 pounds.